

ballrooms that bring it

Ballrooms are back and bigger than ever. BY JENNY RYAN kimball hall

881 Mimosa Blvd., Roswell;
(770) 518-0225; KimballHall.com

In one of the few historic homes that can accommodate large parties (up to 200 guests), this lovely ballroom is lined with floor-to-ceiling windows and French doors, showing off panoramic views of the lush grounds, rustic buildings and courtyard. The neutral tones, beadboard and hardwood floors preserve the original style of the charming farmhouse. An added bonus: There's a horse and carriage for a grand getaway.

the westin savannah harbor golf resort & spa

1 Resort Dr., Savannah;
(912) 201-2042; WestinSavannah.com

The Grand Ballroom at this four-star resort offers the ultimate in understated elegance. Capable of hosting up to 800 for dinner and dancing, the ballroom has tall ceilings, crown molding and glamorous crystal chandeliers. Fresh local seafood and Low Country cuisine are their specialties, but the award-winning culinary staff can also create a custom menu that will wow your guests.

egyptian ballroom at the fox theatre

660 Peachtree St. NE, Atlanta;
(404) 881-2100; FoxTheatre.org

Craving drama? For an awe-inspiring venue that's out of the ordinary, head to the Egyptian Ballroom at The Fox Theatre. Located in a historic theater built in 1929, the ballroom is decorated in rich colors and Egyptian motifs framed by towering columns. You'll have more than enough room for dinner and dancing without needing to trim your guest list—with space for up to 700, you'll even be able to fit all of your dad's golf buddies. >>

